India flays Ranil for threats to shoot fishermen

India on Monday criticised Sri Lankan Prime Minister Ranil Wickremesinghe for justifying the firing on Indian fishermen and sought a 'permanent solution' to the longstanding row.

Fishermen from both sides must meet and decide how to stop these arrests under an interim agreement

Guillotine hangs provincial chief

Government top brass at a recent meeting of the general political situation in the face of the irritable presence of an adversarial group hostile to both the Maithri faction of

Their general agreement was that this common foe, the provincial Chief could be reduced to a nonentity the moment the ruling power was switched over to the group led by the Greens.

Now the affidavits are ready to bring about the proposed change in the power equation. What is stalling the move is the indecision over the choice of a successor and the new board of Ministers.

An overture was made to
